The AEC

The Australian Electoral Commission (AEC) is an independent statutory authority established by the Australian Federal Government.

Our role is to maintain an impartial and independent electoral system for eligible voters through active electoral roll management, efficient delivery of polling services, and targeted education and public awareness programs.

Our values and commitments are the cornerstone of our operating environment and how we work.

Our strategic focus of electoral integrity is achieved through our values of Quality, Agility and Professionalism.

What we offer

The AEC is an inclusive and flexible workplace where our employee's individuality and contributions are valued. We understand the importance of balancing your work and personal life commitments to achieve optimal health and wellbeing. We help our employees with this through our suite of flexible working options and providing our people with supportive and comprehensive employee assistance and wellbeing programs.

The AEC believes in continuous learning and professional development to assist you in achieving your career goals, offering our people a range of learning and development opportunities and a study assistance program.

You can also enjoy 15.4% superannuation contributions, 20 days annual leave per year and paid holiday closedown.

We are conveniently located in Canberra's city centre, situated close to public transport, gyms, restaurants and retail shops.

The Team

We are a collaborative and driven team of professionals focused on the delivering a range of ICT services to the agency including infrastructure, application development and digital communications. ICT services are delivered through a select sourcing model, with a mixture of in-house and outsourced resources.

The IT Infrastructure Section is a part of the Digital Technology Branch committed to building the AEC's information technology by providing resilient, modern and secure systems informed by data and insights and to upskill teams to develop innovative new products and services.

The Opportunity

As the Team Leader, IT Data and Communications you will focus on managing and improving the AEC's system infrastructure, such as Microsoft SQL Databases, Ingress Database, Linux midrange systems, Local area networks and wide area networks. Reporting to the Director - IT Infrastructure, you will manage a team of subject matter experts to deliver positive outcomes for the day-to-day matters relating to the management and support of AEC systems.

You and your team will maintain on-premises and cloud-based AEC Network infrastructure, AEC databases, integrations and reporting. The role is responsible for undertaking very complex and/or sensitive work including contributing to the movement of AEC systems to cloud and supporting the AEC's business outcomes via engagement with stakeholders and vendor management.

This is an exciting opportunity to make a significant contribution to the delivery of electoral events and day-to-day operations through an improved maturity of AEC's systems.

To excel you'll have:

- Knowledge and experience in deploying, testing, and maintaining an enterprise sized ICT environment.
- Demonstrated knowledge of risk management principles and processes in context of Network or Database management.
- Demonstrated detailed understanding of IT systems and solutions.

- Sound knowledge and experience in successfully managing and delivering results within time restraints and with competing priorities.
- Proven conceptual and analytical abilities with sound knowledge of change management practices and techniques to enable innovation.
- Demonstrated personal drive and integrity whilst achieving results within legislative and budget parameters.

The AEC is committed to creating a diverse environment and is proud to be an equal opportunity employer.

You will need to provide:

- An up to date resume (one or two pages maximum)
- A two page pitch outlining how your skills, knowledge, experience and qualifications make you the best person for this opportunity.

You may be required to undertake psychometric testing as part of this recruitment process.

RecruitAbility

This scheme aims to attract and develop applicants with disability and also facilitate cultural changes in selection panels and agency recruitment.

If you are a person living with a disability and opt into the scheme; you are required to declare you have disability; and must meet the minimum requirements of this vacancy. Once these requirements are met, you are advanced to a further stage in the selection process. Merit remains the basis for engagement and promotion.

You do not need to provide further information about your disability.

For further information visit the APSC website.

Australian citizenship

All positions in the AEC require employees to be Australian citizens and is a condition of engagement.

Information on Australian citizenship including how to obtain evidence of Australian citizenship is available from the Department of Home Affairs at <http://www.citizenship.gov.au>.

COVID-19 Vaccination Policy

Applicants are required to meet the conditions of the AEC's COVID-19 Vaccination Policy which outlines that all AEC staff must have received their recommended primary (general population) dosage of any Approved Vaccine at that time, or have an exemption approved by an AEC Delegate. Currently, primary doses means you have had two doses of an approved vaccine. However if you are required under state or territory guidelines to have a booster vaccination to perform particular duties, you will be required to have additional dose(s) when eligible.

The Federal Government recommendations on primary doses may change over time and the recommendations of that time will apply as the AEC definition.

Politically sensitive position

Any person who is, and is seen to be active in political affairs, and intends to publicly carry on this activity, may compromise the strict neutrality of the AEC and cannot be considered.

Security requirement

Australian Citizenship is generally required in order to obtain a security clearance. For more information, see Section 11.4 of the Personnel security guidelines, part of the Australian Government Protective Security Policy Framework.

You will need to undertake a character clearance and police check and required to obtain and hold a NV1 security clearance.

Talent pool

Candidates who are found suitable but not offered a position may be placed in a talent pool for up to 18 months from the date of advertisement. The AEC will use talent pools to fill future vacancies.
